Leadership

Next Generation

Mentoring

Born in Malaysia, Wee-Yeong Eyou immigrated to NZ 30 years ago. He is married to Reeta, and they have two boys - Elyas (15) and Levi (13).

Wee-Yeong is the Executive Director of Making it On My Own (MIOMO) - an educational business delivering leadership and life skills to teens 16-20 years of age, and parenting skills to parents of teens and tweens.

His passion for the next generation in Aotearoa drives him to impart value and skills to set young people up for success in all areas of life; and to equip parents for their role in their young adults' independence journey.

Career Background

After completing a conjoint degree at the University of Auckland (majoring in technology and management), Wee-Yeong embarked on a 20+ year career in the fields of consulting, risk management, youth mentoring and non-profit leadership.

In 2014, Wee-Yeong narrowed his focus to work solely with the emerging generation of young adults. In 2019, Wee-Yeong commenced a part time Masters of Arts in Leadership, and graduated in 2024. He is currently pursuing a Doctorate in Youth, Family and Culture.
